Bradley Segreto

Director

ABOUT

Bradley joined Aspire Commercial upon its inception in 2023 and serves as Director. In this role, he is responsible for executing transactions on approximately two million square feet of office and industrial assets, representing both private and institutional investors. Throughout his career, Bradley has executed over 230 transactions with a total transaction volume of more than $135 million.

Prior to joining Aspire Commercial, Bradley spent six years with Holt Lunsford Commercial, most recently serving as a Market Director. Prior to Holt Lunsford Commercial, Bradley worked as a sales representative for an industrial engineering firm where he assisted clients in a variety of industries with their predictive and reliability maintenance needs. During this time, he gained valuable sales experience and provided excellent customer service to his clients, including many Fortune 500 companies.

Bradley received a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership & Supervision from the University of Houston. Bradley is a Texas Real Estate Commission license holder and a member of NAIOP and Champions Golf Club.
